TOWER VIEW
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear families,

While this week is only a short week—it's a busy one!

Today, as I write, we have Romans and Celts in the school for Year 3's Roman day (looks fabulous). Thursday is the annual May Day celebrations—which I'm really looking forward to having never worked in a school that has celebrated May Day at all and Friday is the day of celebration for King Charles III's coronation.

Remember:

On this day, it is a non-uniform day—children to wear red, white and blue.

We will also be providing every child with a free picnic on this day (children are free to bring their own home sandwiches if they usually do) The PTFA are kindly providing the pudding for every child and school have bought a small memento to help them remember the occasion—which for all of them; all of the staff; all of our parents (and many grandparents) is a first in a lifetime experience....

The menu is on the next page—fingers crossed for warm and sunny weather!

[Don't forget—next Monday is another Bank Holiday—don't come to school by mistake!!]

Best wishes

Graham Lobb

Support for the Cost of Living:

Many of our families were able to take advantage of support provided by Staffordshire County Council with the current cost of living before Easter.

This is now open again and I am able to nominate families to receive this support if they feel they need this.

This is open to all families who are finding things hard at the moment—not just those entitled to Free School Dinners or claiming benefits.

To find out more information, please e mail help@towerview.staffs.sch.uk

We are able to access a number of slow cookers for families to help them make low cost and healthy meals at home.

These will be available at some point from the end of May. A distribution event is being planned within the local community that will also support the use of these slow cookers.

If you would be interested in a slow cooker – again – let me know on the e mail. (Priority will be given to families entitled to Free School Meals but there should be enough to give to more interested families)

SATs

Year 6 SATs are taking place next week from Tuesday 9th- Friday 12th May.

All Year 6 children must be in school every day during this week for the tests.

Further details to follow from the Year 6 team.

Year 2 also complete their SATs tests through May.

Reception had a great time last week learning about Eid and having an Eid celebration. They wore bright coloured clothes, designed henna patterns, decorated biscuits, danced to Bollywood music and took part in party games. What a fun week!
